3. What desire or attitude in my life needs to become more like Christ?
4. Where am I becoming more loving—and where do I still struggle to love?

Sharing Recipes, Sharing Blessings

God calls us to care for one another and to share the blessings we have been given. One simple way we can do that is by sharing our recipes, cooking ideas, and kitchen wisdom with our neighbors.

Good food has a way of bringing people together—and our community has a lot of good ideas to share!

Our food pantry provides many of the same helpful staples each week, including rice, dried beans, pasta, canned vegetables, and other basic ingredients. We're collecting recipes, cooking ideas, and helpful tips from our church and community that can help turn these everyday ingredients into tasty, filling meals that stretch a little further.

Do you have a favorite recipe for rice or beans? A creative way to use leftovers? A tip for making a simple meal go further? We'd love to hear it!

By sharing our recipes, ideas, and kitchen wisdom, we can help one another make the most of what we have. Your favorite family recipe might become someone else's new favorite meal! Together, we can share not only food, but also the knowledge, creativity, and care that make our community strong.

Please send us your recipes and tips so we can share them with our pantry community. You can write down your recipe and simply place it in the offering plate, bring it to the church office, mail it, or email it to office@fumctitusville.com. When submitting your recipe or tip, please include your name and phone number in case we have questions or would like to learn more about your recipe.

When we share what we have, we share God's blessings with one another.
